Dedication

We, the senior class of '55, would like to dedicate our annual to Marvin Schortzman who has been our superintendent throughout our four years of high school. He is our senior class adviser and has taught many of our subjects.

We would like to take this opportunity to express our thanks and appreciation for his willingness to cooperate with us on any project we have undertaken.

Class History of 1955

One bright sunny day in September, 1943, ten little boys and girls started to school. They were Charles Branson, Bill Granflaten, Ruth Hammer, Phyllis Mergen, Madonna Moran, LaVonne Nelson, Shirley Branson, Paul Richards, Ernest Straw, and Jack McLaughlin. LaVonne Nelson, Paul Richards, and Ernest Straw moved away during the year. Our teacher was Bethel Peterson.

Seven of us entered the second grade. We had gained Peggy Bartling, Marlin Christensen, and Gerald Ordal. Then in March we lost Madonna Moran and Marlin Christensen, but Janelle Bidwell, Mickey Walker, and Delilah Christensen joined us. Bethel Peterson was our teacher.

As we were starting to understand what knowledge and schooling really meant, we went into the third grade. We had ten to start out with. In April we gained Larry Lloyd and lost Janelle Bidwell. Betty Winters was our teacher for this year.

In the fall when we started our fourth grade we had Bill Granflaten, Ruth Hammer, Phyllis Mergen, Peggy Bartling, Mickey Walker, Charles Branson, Delilah Christensen, Shirley Branson, Gerald Ordal, Larry Lloyd, and Jack McLaughlin. Then we gained Arlene Olson, which made a total of twelve. Our teacher was Betty Winters.

We gained Edward and Harry Cooperrider and Gary Wiese the fifth year of school but lost Peggy Bartling, Larry Lloyd, Delilah Christensen, and Shirley Branson which made the total ten. Our teacher for that year was Mildred Severson.

The teacher for the sixth grade was Mildred Severson. We lost Charles Branson and Edward and Harry Cooperrider. This left Bill Granflaten, Ruth Hammer, Jack McLaughlin, Phyllis Mergen, Arlene Olson, Gerald Ordal, Mickey Walker and Gary Wiese.

We thought we were pretty bright, now that we were in the seventh grade. The register read the same as the sixth grade and our teacher for this year was Esther Backhaus.

Larry Irvine and Dale Ring joined us in the eighth grade, but in February Dale moved to Lane, South Dakota. This left us with a total of nine for our graduating year. Mrs. L. W. Brandes was our teacher.

As we entered high school Arlene Olson, Ruth Hammer, Phyllis Mergen, Ruby Nelson, Mickey Walker, Bill Granflaten, Dexter Harding, Gerald Ordal, Jim Sheppard, Jack McLaughlin, Gary Wiese, Larry Irvine, and Eldon Thurow made up the freshman class. We lost Larry Irvine, and Madonna Moran transferred from Orland in October of this year.

We started our sophomore year with thirteen students; then in March Larry Hybertson joined us which gave us a total of fourteen.

In our junior year we presented the play "Room Trouble", which was very successful. We had a Hawaiian theme for our Junior-Senior Banquet which was also a success.

The year 1954 found fourteen seniors who were Arlene Olson, Gary Wiese, Phyllis Mergen, Ruth Hammer, Ruby Nelson, Madonna Moran, Eldon Thurow, Gerald Ordal, Dexter Harding, Bill Granflaten, Jim Sheppard, Jack McLaughlin, Larry Hybertson and Mickey Walker.

We are very thankful for the twelve wonderful years of education we have had and the great inspirations it has given us. With this broad sense of knowledge we go into the world, much brighter and wiser than anyone ever to have graduated from Franklin High.

Senior Class Will

We the senior class of 1955, being fully in our right minds and being reasonably sane and being in full possession of superexcellent understanding, do publish this our last will and testament:

We, the senior class will the duty to repair as best he can all the broken windowpanes and desks to our janitor.

We also will all the broken typewriters and torn music to Mrs. Bohl.

We the seniors, will Bill Granflaten to the freshman girls.

We leave to our faculty all the torn text books and all the used gum found on the bottom of our desks.

We bequeath the junior class all such talent that will make their class as well-liked by all, as the one before them.

I, Arlene Olson, will the location of my home to Kay Davin.

I, Madonna Moran, will my ability to collect class rings to Sharol Larson.

I, Gary Wiese, will my wavy hair to Mr. Dockendorf.

I, Mickey Walker, will my ability to climb fences to Loren Nelson.

I, Phyllis Mergen, will my knowledge of Orland to Gale Sundberg.

I, Bill Granflaten, will my ability to take Am. Observer tests to anyone that is that absent minded.

I, Larry Hybertson, will my musical talents to anyone who takes up the trombone.

I, Dexter Harding, will my attraction of Dell Rapids to Robert Nelson.

I, Jerry Ordal, will my ability to hold my nose when John starts laughing to whom it may concern.

I, Ruby Nelson, will my ambitious nature to get the annual out to the energetic juniors.

I, Jim Sheppard, will my ability to skip school for no reason at all to Clarence Bos.

I, Ruth Hammer, will my attraction for the higher schools of learning to Jackie Fods.

I, Eldon Thurow, will my ability to get to school on time to Janice Crelly.

I, Jack McLaughlin, will all the beat-up basketballs and basketball suits to who ever can make use of them.

And we do hereby appoint and constitute Supt. Schortzman sole executive of this our last will and testament.

In witness thereof, we the seniors of 1955, seal this the day of May 1955 A. D.

Class Prophecy of 1955

The year is 1963. A class reunion is being held at good old Franklin High for the brilliant class of '55.

On our way down the new super-highway between the Granflaten Hotel and Joe McAllister Airport we see flight 19 approaching the runway from the east. We slow our turbo-car to a halt in front of the administration building and wait for our passengers.

The first to alight from the airplane is Eldon Thurow who is now a star slugger for the Rutland Redbirds, and who doubles as chief scout for the N. B. P. A. in his off season.

Next to descend the steps is Mickey Walker who has made his fortune from a patent on a farm featuring an extra large haymow. This now, it is rumored is so large a person can easily raise cane in it.

Right behind Mickey comes Bill Granflaten, a member of the F. B. I. who acts as Mickey's bodyguard. He is also part owner of the Granflaten Hotel which is known all over the world for its fine sea foods.

The next to come out of the airplane is Ruby Nelson who married into a rich family of bolt manufacturers. Before her marriage she was launched on a fine career as a wrestling promoter, so it is evident that she didn't marry for money.

Who's next? Why that's Madonna Moran. She has become fabulously rich in the ring business after failing in the hardware and gas industry. What surprises us is the fact that she is still unmarried.

What's this? Jack McLaughlin isn't here. Oh! Here he comes in his new thought-controlled Pontiac. This automobile will go anywhere merely by the driver thinking of the destination. This was developed during his high-school days when he decided to drive one-handed.

Look at that beautiful hair! Why, if it isn't Gorgeous Gary Wiese, better known as "The Strangler". Only last week he captured the world wrestling crown with one of his well-known (to classmates) strangleholds.

What are the photographers for? Why it's the famous singer Arlene Olson alias Tiny Ole. You will no doubt remember her sudden rise to fame through her record "Undecided". Maybe she can find time to squeeze in a song for us right after the reunion if she doesn't have to rush off to interview the basketball team.

Say! Doesn't the pilot of that plane look familiar? Why it's Jim Sheppard. Guess he had quite a time getting that job. It was between him and his brother as to who had the most patience, but Jim waited the longest and finally got the vote.

Well, there's Ruth Hammer. Rumor has it that she tried to crash the literary world. Sad to say, however, her stories turned out to be jokes. Now she has successfully invaded the field of radar and has made quite a name for herself down at the University.

Here comes Gerald Ordal, the famous basketball star. It's said he has become so popular that he receives mailbags of letters and bundles of telegrams before each game.

Oh, yes, I thought there was someone missing. Phyllis Mergen is just driving up in her Minute Car. She married soon after getting out of high school and settled down on a farm near Orland, which is a suburb of Franklin. Her children are all happy ones which is only natural for she always had a cheerful disposition.

We still aren't all here, are we? Where are Dexter Harding and Larry Hybertson? Why, they haven't made much of a name for themselves yet. They've been writing this prophecy for the last eight years.

Larry Hybertson
Dexter Hardina

Class Poem

We the class of '55
Made this poem of our reflection,
These are our talents and faults
Which we leave for further inspection.

He's president of the class
And captain of the team,
He's a romeo with the girls,
Eldon's the one we mean.

Larry is a friendly guy,
With schoolmates he rates high,
His intelligence and looks
Will surely get him by.

Dexter is the funny man
Many a joke he tells,
He has a hopped-up Chevy
That carries him to Dells.

Mickey is a Democrat
And excels in farming,
Some things that he does,
Are really quite alarming.

Gerald is a clever soul,
His colors are pink and black,
And when it comes to having fun,
He's sharper than a tack.

Phyllis, a charming lass,
Is always willing and ready,
But don't get any ideas boys
Remember -- she's going steady.

Ruth is interested in colleges,
And we're sure she will succeed,
But it won't be to higher learning
That her ambitions will lead.

Arlene has many friends
And is a studious gal;
In trouble, you will find,
She truly is a pal.

Gary has lots of wavy hair
And seems to get around.
A saxophone player like he
Is really hard to be found.

Jack is very good
At developing much talent,
With accordion in hand
He looks very gallant.

Bill does his dreaming
All through the day;
He works at night,
It's easier that way.

Jim is the sleeper
Of the bunch,
But he always tries
To be first for lunch.

Ruby is a friendly lass
To almost everyone;
She does her share of work,
But also likes some fun.

Madonna is ambitious,
And really gets around,
She's nice to everyone she meets,
No truer friend is to be found.

This is the end, there is no more
Of an angelic class--you bet,
We bid you fond adieu and hope
We're a class you'll never forget.

That's us---Class of '55
